

Maps and More

Wednesday 13th November,

from 18.30 pm for drinks and talk from 19.00 pm

Venue: the Guildford Institute, Ward Street, GU1 4LH

Presentation and talk by Tony Painter, hosted by Guildford Orienteering Club. All welcome.

Tony is a map enthusiast and will provide an engaging talk covering many of his map insights, including a history of maps; significant moments in mapping; wartime maps; persuasion, deception and distortion within maps and a section on Soviet mapping, plus a nostalgic look at some early orienteering maps.

This event is free for GO members using the discount code go-free and £4 for non-members. Please register via <https://racesignup.co.uk/maps-and-more>
